Friday, May 30:

8.30 Registration and Coffee
9.15 Welcome
9.30-10.30: Manfred Bierwisch (Berlin):
“Why and how nominalization differs from verbalization and adjectivalization”
10.30-10.45: coffee break
10.45-11.45: Geert E. Booij (Leiden):
“The treatment of semantic regularities in construction morphology”
11.45-12.25: Klaus von Heusinger (Stuttgart) & Christoph Schwarze (Konstanz):
"Meaning construction of Italian V+N compounds"
12.25-13.45: lunch
14.25-15.25: Andrew Spencer (Essex):
"Factorising lexical relatedness"
15.25-15.40: coffee break
15.40-16.20: Carola Trips (Stuttgart/Mannheim):
"Theoretical consequences of morphological change"
16.20-17.00: Melanie Uth (Stuttgart): tba.
17.00: “Stäffeleswalk”: enjoy the view over Stuttgart & dinner with Swabian food

Saturday, May 31:

9.30-10.30: Rochelle Lieber (New Hampshire):
"Semiproductivity and the semantics of derivation"
10.30-10.45: coffee break
10.45-11.45: Ingo Plag (Siegen):
"Syntactic and semantic information in derivational morphology: some case studies"
11:45-12.25: Daniela Marzo (Stuttgart/Tübingen):
"On the interdependence of morphology and semantics in word transparency: evidence from French and Italian"
12.25-14.00: lunch
"Constraints on nominalization: a case study from French"
15.40-16.00: coffee break
16.00-17.00: Maria Goldbach (Oxford):
"The taming of the stem in Spanish deverbal derivatives"
17.00-17.40: Regine Brandtner (Stuttgart): tba.

Those who will stay until Sunday are very welcome to join us for a “beergarden” visit!